Party invitations.

There have been a number of instances recently where children have felt left out and upset when party invitations have been handed at school but they have not received one. To avoid any unnecessary upset and confusion (of children and their parents) we ask that party invitations are no longer handed out at school.

Oh No They Didn't!

On Thursday Year 6 went to the Lyric Theatre to watch Jack and the Beanstalk: When we arrived we sat in our seats at the top of the auditorium. There were loads of different schools there and before the show started one of the actors got us into the panto spirit by encouraging us to shout and wave when our school was mentioned. I really enjoyed the show, especially the part where the actors threw sweets into the crowd! My favourite part was when the giant's eye looked at everyone; it made us all jump! It was an amazing day. Leo, Y6.

Well done QM—you have helped to raise £ 533 for Children in Need through getting dressed up and designing, making and eating cake. A massive thank you to the wonderful 'Friends of Queen's Manor' for running the cake sale for the school council last Friday we really do appreciate all you do for us.

O Christmas Tree! Our friends at Shoots & Leaves have very kindly said they will donate £5 to the school for every Christmas tree they sell to a QM parent. You need to buy a £5 voucher from FoQM, which you will be deducted from the price you pay for your tree. They will even throw in free installation!
